Terrorists in Indonesia Kill 9 Persons

JAKARTA, Indonesia (UP) — Security agents pressed an island-wide manhunt today for the terrorists whose bombs killed nine persons and wounded 165 others in the attempted assassination of President Sukarno.

Sukarno was not hurt.

At the same time, the Indonesian government carried out threatened retaliatory measures against the Netherlands to surrender the Dutch-held territory of West Irian — also known as Dutch New Guinea.

Sukarno himself escaped uninjured in the attempt on his life Saturday night at the Tjikini elementary school. He called on the nation to remain calm in a nationwide broadcast and then sped off Jakarta under armed escort, apparently for the summer presidential palace too.

Light censorship was claimed on the manhunt. But it was reported that several suspects were taken into custody immediately after the attempted assassination.

Sukarno had gone to the school with two of his children who attend classes there for ceremonies in connection with the third anniversary of its opening.

A crowd estimated in the hundreds pressed around Sukarno as he left the building. Suddenly, the gunshot rang out — it was believed to be the signal for the bomb throwers.

Four grenades arched through the air in quick succession to explode into the suddenly panicked crowd. Shrapnel ripped through the densely packed crowd.

The assailants escaped in the confusion.

Three of the injured were presidential guards. A witness told reporters one of the aides pushed Sukarno to the ground and shielded the president's body with his own when the first grenade exploded.

There was no official guess for the reasons underlying the assassination attempt against Sukarno, Indonesia recently had been plagued by a series of military-civilian rebellions against the Sukarno government. Only the "home island" of Java is under firm control.

Sukarno, an avowed neutralist, has been pushing a program for what he termed "guided democracy," which would bring the Communists into the government in an advisory capacity.

Scouts Boo Proposal By a Scientist

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Dr. Mordecai Adler, noted scholar and philosopher, met with boos and hisses when he suggested to some 500 San Francisco Boy Scouts that they increase their homework to help the United States catch up with Russia on the educational front.

Dr. Adler told the Explorer Scouts, aged 14 to 17:

"The future of our country depends on your learning more than what the schools now require. A serious deficiency in the schools is that you're not given enough homework."

Knowland Will Not Campaign Extensively

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) said today he isn't going to campaign extensively in California next spring in an effort to win two-party nomination for governor.

Knowland, the Senate Republican leader, said he expects to spend most of his time in Washington until Congress adjourns next fall.

Both Knowland and his prospective Democratic opponent, State Atty. Gen. Pat Brown, have announced they will file for both the Democratic and Republican nominations for governor in the June Primary. Cross filing is permitted in California.

When he ran for re-election to the Senate five years ago, Knowland won both party nominations in the primary. But he said in an interview he doesn't believe that will happen in the governorship contests.

"I expect to win the Republican nomination and I assume Mr. Brown will win the Democratic nomination," he said.

Arkansas Death Toll for Holiday Period Is 23

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The death of a Memphis woman near Brinkley yesterday pushed the Thanksgiving holiday period traffic toll to 23, one of the highest in Arkansas history.

A spokesman at State Police headquarters said today "some sort of record" might have been set in the highway deaths.

All 23 traffic deaths during the week which ended Sunday midnight occurred between Thursday morning and Sunday morning.

In addition there were 10 other violent deaths in Arkansas during the past week, raising the toll to 33.

Five persons died in separate shootings and one each in a fall train accident and explosion. One was drowned, and another suffocated.

Miss Carrie E. Leatherwood, 71, of Memphis, was killed when the car in which she was riding over-

Negro Rapist to Get Chance for New Trial

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court today withheld a mandate for the execution of Luther Bailey, convicted Negro rapist, to allow time for a new appeal by his attorney.

The high court delayed the matter until Dec. 16.

A mandate must be issued by the Supreme Court before the governor can set a date for execution.

Bailey, convicted of raping a white widow in Little Rock and sentenced to die in the electric chair, gained an automatic reprieve when his case was appealed to the U. S. Supreme Court. That appeal, which was rejected, was filed last August — a few days before the date set for his execution.

His attorney recently filed a new appeal in Pulaski Circuit Court, but the trial court turned it down.

Bailey's attorney said that under a 1937 Arkansas law his client is entitled to a 6-month delay for further action on the appeal.

Police said that Bailey was arrested a few miles from Little Rock and a short time after the woman reported that she was raped. Officers testified that an identification card bearing Bailey's name was found in the woman's bedroom.

Advises Wives Business Life Not Always Easy

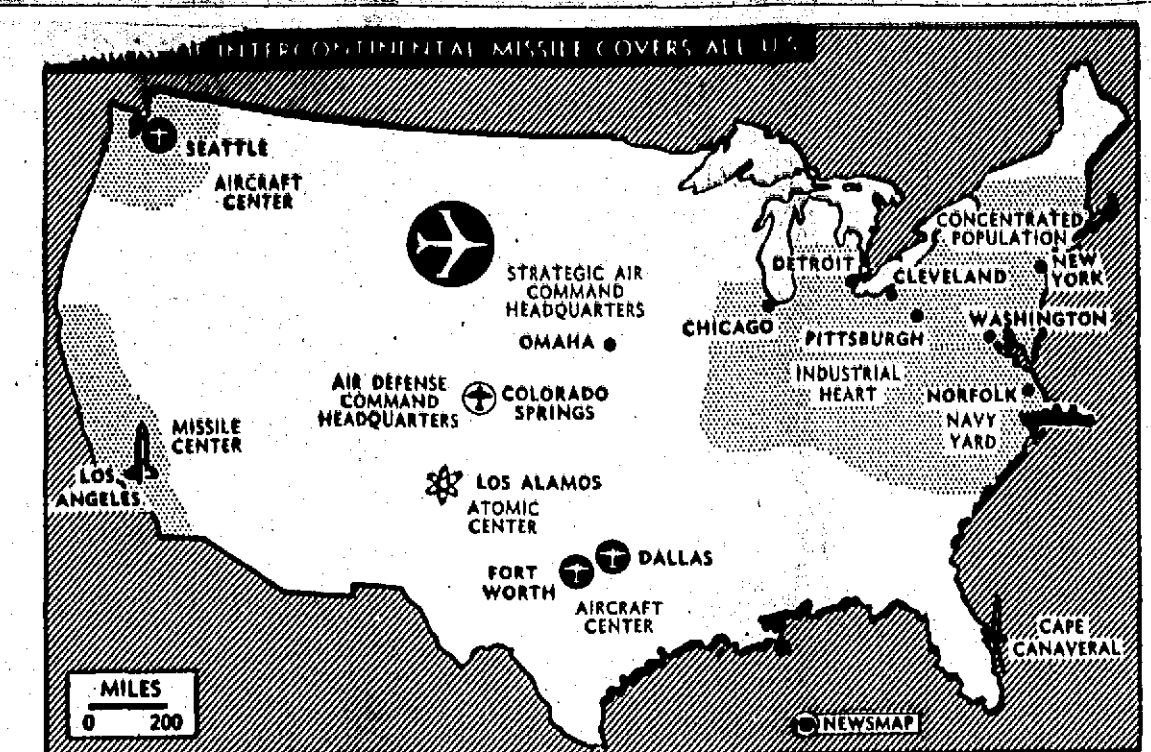

By SAUL PETT (For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP) — Many American women chained to the care and feeding of home and children suffer from the delusion that their husbands lead more interesting lives than they do.

Getting her goodby kiss in the morning, the wife turns drearily back to the breakfast dishes while her husband, she is convinced, rushes off to the office and an outside life rich in human experience.

When a husband points out that his business life is often nothing but routine pressure and monotony, a wife will frequently say:

"Yes, but at least you have power—adults, important adults to talk to, to stimulate you. My most agitated wives aren't given much to do—the baby, the

Storm Brings Evacuations in Hawaii

HONOLULU (AP) — Some 1,100 persons were evacuated from the coastal area of Kauai today as a yale wind of up to 90 mile an hour from Hurricane Nina battered that northernmost of the Hawaiian Islands.

Those evacuated, mostly fishermen and cane field workers living near mouths of swollen rivers, were moved to public schools.

Rampaging rivers flooded the towns of Hanalei and Hanalei but there was only slight damage and no casualties were reported. Heavy rains and strong wind continued to batter the island which is 85 miles northwest of Oahu, the site of Honolulu.

Two small rivers near Hanalei flooded, cutting off the town of Hanalei from the rest of the island. The village of Hanalei was cut off from the rest of the island by the flooding of the Hanalei River.

The Kilauea lighthouse at Mokua in a severe-hour period on Kauai reported winds of 90 m.p.h. at 2 a.m.

Two feet of rain was registered in a seven-hour period on Kauai — traditionally the wettest spot in the islands.

Three Wrecks in This Area, One Man Killed

Three accidents were reported over the weekend in this area with one resulting in the death of a Hope Negro Friday night.

Elmo Williams, 28, was killed when his car left the pavement and crashed into a ditch about eight miles south of Hope on Highway 20. State Trooper Guy Downing said Williams apparently lost control of the vehicle.

Yesterday on Highway 67, west, autos driven by Eugene Ware of Fulton and Edward Arnett of Emmett, collided with heavy property damage resulting.

In Hope Saturday at 6th and Hervey Streets autos driven by Eugene Edwards and Henry Ward collided with heavy damage to the Edwards car. City Police charged Ward with failure to have proper brakes and Edwards with failure to yield the right-of-way.

Data About Mailing Yule Packages

Postmaster Robert Wilson said today, "Early mailing of all Christmas cards and gifts is the biggest single factor in getting all of the mail delivered before Christmas. Post Office facilities have been expanded extra help will be available, and everything is geared up to handle a record Christmas mail in Hope this year."

"If you have any articles of unusual size or bulk, better check with the Post Office before attempting to mail them," the Postmaster warns. The limits on size and weight of packages varies, depending on where you mail your package.

When wrapping gifts for mailing, it is always better to use corrugated cartons, especially where there are a number of various sized objects in the shipment. Be sure to include an extra label with your return address and the recipient's address inside the carton or package before it is wrapped.

Postmaster Wilson said that if you will follow these simple rules, you are certain to have your gifts delivered before Christmas Day: Wrap them securely. Address them correctly. Mail them early.

When mailing your Christmas cards, use the free labels from the Post Office reading, "All for Local Delivery." By sorting your Christmas cards and tying them in two separate bundles, with the addresses all facing one way, you're sure to speed their arrival.

Christmas cards and packages for out-of-town destinations should be mailed well before December 10th, and your Christmas mail for local delivery should be sent at least a week before Christmas.

Court Trials of NAACP Officials

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Three officials of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People face municipal court trials here and in North Little Rock today morning on charges of violating city ordinances.

The ordinances, aimed at the NAACP, require certain organizations to file reports with the city clerk. The association has not filed its report in either city.

Mrs. L. C. Bates, president, and the Rev. J. C. Crenshaw, city chapter president of the NAACP, will be tried in Little Rock.

W. A. Fair, vice president of the North Little Rock branch, will be tried in North Little Rock.

Mrs. Bates and Crenshaw surrendered voluntarily to police and were released on bond several weeks ago. Fair went through the same process last Saturday.

Both NAACP branches have challenged the constitutionality of the ordinances in U.S. District Court here and have asked for injunctions against their enforcement.

Service Unity Need Seen Through Probe

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three Republican senators said today a Senate investigation into the missile program indicates the need for greater armed forces unification.

Senators Bridges (R-NH), Saltonstall (R-Mass.) and Francis Case (R-SD) said in separate interviews they believe interservice rivalry has slowed down missile and satellite development.

Along the same line, Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) proposed that a Defense Department coordinator be given authority to transfer various funds, to channel them into those missile fields that are most promising.

Dr. Vannevar Bush, former head of the Office of Scientific Research and Development, told the Senate Preparedness subcommittee last week the missile program had been hindered by damaging and "sometimes disgraceful" services.

Bridges said he doubts any move is in the offing to change the present system at the top. He said he expects the subcommittee to recommend lightning up service cooperation on the lower levels.

The program will also include musical entertainment and group singing. Two door prizes will be given.

Ike Returns to Washington, to Call in Cabinet

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — President Eisenhower headed back to Washington today, hoping to get an okay from his doctor to attend an afternoon Cabinet meeting.

The President left his farm home at 10:13 a.m. on the 45-mile drive back to the White House.

He set out after getting another excellent progress report from his doctor on the start of the second week of recovery.

Mrs. Eisenhower did not accompany him, but planned to return to Washington later in the day.

Arkansan Killed in Arizona Crash

NOGALES, Ariz. (UP) — An Arkansan Alrman was among nine persons killed in a head-on crash Saturday night on a stretch of Arizona highway called "El Camino de Muerte" — the Highway of Death.

A-2C Forrest W. Dillars, 20, of Van Buren, Ark., was traveling with five other Arkansans stationed at the Davis-Monthan Base at Tucson. All of the servicemen were killed.

Arizona highway patrol officers said the accident apparently happened when the driver of one car flashed his lights at the second car which was traveling with its bright lights on.

The scene of the accident is on U. S. Highway 80, about seven miles north of Nogales. The highway is the main route between Tucson and the border city of Nogales.

This part of the road has been known as "El camino de Muerte" because of its high death toll.

Public Cautioned Not to Expect a Tax Reduction

By B. L. LIVINGSTONE

WASHINGTON (AP) — American taxpayers were cautioned by a congressional tax authority today not to entertain rosy hopes of income tax reduction next year, or possibly even for some years to come.

In an address prepared for the American Tax Foundation in New York City, Rep. Wilbur D. Mills (D-Ark.) said "the bitter realities of inflation and the Soviet scientific advances" afford little promise of immediate tax relief.

He declared the prospect for steadily rising defense spending that will probably eat up any "treasury surplus."

With the national economy likely to be spurred by new defense-generated activity, Mills said, the circumstances "call for the greatest caution in avoiding hasty tax reductions, either on the basis of a temporary surplus in the budget or a temporary lull in the over-all level of economic activity."

Only if the nation's economy expands faster than government spending can the nation look for a tax surplus.

UN Leader Continues Jordan Talks

By TOM MASTERSON

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — UN Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld continued talks with Jordanian leaders today but there was no indication of compromise in the dispute U.N. sources feared might bring an open clash with Israel.

Trouble could break out Wednesday, when an Israeli convoy again is scheduled to go to Israeli-held Mt. Scopus, inside Jordanian territory.

A spokesman for Hammarskjöld said that shooting might result if Jordan continues to refuse to allow convoys through and Israel insists on sending them.

"This thing could get that serious if it is not settled," he declared.

A communiqué said Hammarskjöld and Jordanian leaders discussed "problems relating to the strengthening of the position of the U.N. truce supervision organization... particularly in the Mt. Scopus demilitarized area."

turned on U.S. Highway 70 near Brinkley yesterday.
Police said Mrs. Willie Bertha Browning, 49, also of Memphis, was the driver. They said the accident occurred on a stretch of road under construction.

Ten deaths resulting from traffic accidents were reported in Arkansas Saturday.

L. W. Watts, 63, of Little Rock, was struck and killed by a car there Saturday night.
It was the third traffic death in Little Rock in three days—After a 68-day period without a traffic fatality.

Four persons died in a head-on collision of two cars at Barling near Fort Smith. Killed were Mrs. Amos Hoover, 53, of Lavaca; Carl Dillard, 54, and his 39-year-old wife, both of Lavaca; and Bill Wilson, 41, of Charleston, Ark.

Two children were killed when their father apparently lost control of his car on a mountain curve near Blue Mountain. The car plunged down the slope. Dead were Linda Ann Hicks, 5, and Joseph Hicks, four months.

Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Hicks of Havana, Ark., were hospitalized at Fort Smith with serious injuries.

The Thanksgiving holiday had a grisly start on state highways when six persons died in a crash near Corning last Thursday.

Cohn about using the studio's site on her forthcoming trip to New York, and he was cordial. But a month ago they were at stool and points.

Kim refused to report for a loan-out to Alfred Hitchcock for the James Stewart starrer, now called "Vertigo." Backed by her new agents, she demanded an adjustment in her contract. After a few weeks of name calling, she got it.

"I'm on top now," she explained to me on the Hitchcock set. "But who knows how long that will continue. I've got to start participating in the profits too."
"After all, you work hard so you can do the things you want, such as providing things for your family. But I couldn't do that on my salary. I couldn't do a lot of things."

"My salary was $1,250 a week. That sounds like a lot of money, but my take-home pay was around $250. Where does it go? You'd be surprised how easily it can go. And when you're well known, people think you're able to contribute more than others to charity."

"I was unable to buy sufficient clothes for myself. When I wanted to go to a party, I'd have to go to the studio and ask to borrow a dress that Rita Hayworth had worn in a picture. I'd have to get the studio to do my hair too. They'd complain and ask why I couldn't get it done myself on my salary. Then I'd have to explain the whole thing to them."

DOROTHY DIX

Too Tired —
Try Change

Dear Dorothy Dix: My wife and I have been married for more than 30 years. She has worked part time most of these years; I have always earned a good salary but she prefers to work, since we have no children. She keeps the money she makes, which is agreeable to me. Until very recently she was an ideal companion, a good housekeeper, a charming hostess, but suddenly she's changed completely. She neglects herself and the house. When I ask her to go out with me, she's "too tired" — a stock answer that's becoming monotonous. We can't have company since the house is never presentable. We're both past 60. Can you offer any suggestions? D. H.

Dear D. H.: Although this is a fairly obvious answer, apparently you haven't tried it — has your wife seen a doctor lately. And have you talked to him? The lady might be ill, and doesn't want to worry you, or she may be neglecting some physical deficiency that would readily yield to treatment. A change would do you both good. Since you are in a good financial position, take a good winter vacation. Do something different, something expensive, something exciting — a trip to Hawaii, for instance. I think this will restore your wife to her former charming self as housekeeper, hostess and wife.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I'm in love with a boy who is on his way to Germany, where he will be for two years. He asked me to wait for him, and I promised, but nothing exciting — a trip to Hawaii, for instance. I think this will restore your wife to her former charming self as housekeeper, hostess and wife.

Dear Girls: Get acquainted with some girls in your organization who know these boys. I am sure if the boys have no entanglements you will have no trouble in getting an introduction to them.

Dear Dorothy Dix: My wife and I have been married for more than 30 years. She has worked part time most of these years; I have always earned a good salary but she prefers to work, since we have no children. She keeps the money she makes, which is agreeable to me. Until very recently she was an ideal companion, a good housekeeper, a charming hostess, but suddenly she's changed completely. She neglects herself and the house. When I ask her to go out with me, she's "too tired" — a stock answer that's becoming monotonous. We can't have company since the house is never presentable. We're both past 60. Can you offer any suggestions? D. H.

Dear D. H.: Although this is a fairly obvious answer, apparently you haven't tried it — has your wife seen a doctor lately. And have you talked to him? The lady might be ill, and doesn't want to worry you, or she may be neglecting some physical deficiency that would readily yield to treatment. A change would do you both good. ing was said about my going out with other boys. I'd like to go out, as it will be awfully lonesome just waiting. I'm only 17. TROUBLED
Dear Troubled: Why couldn't you have done your thinking a bit earlier, instead of waiting until your friend is on the high seas? Seventeen is, of course, too young to be committed to two dilette years. Let your soldier know about your change of heart as soon as possible.

Dear Dorothy Dix: My fiancé is working overseas and won't be back in this country until spring. Meanwhile, of course, I get very lonely. My boss and I have interests in common and he has asked me to play golf, or attend dances at the local country club. His wife is a semi-invalid and can't participate in his social life. Both my fiancé and the boss's wife know of our friendship and accept it. However, I understand other people are gossiping about us. Shall I give up this friendship, or ignore the malicious chatter? WILMA
Dear Wilma: Malicious chatter, especially when it has a foundation in fact, is very difficult to ignore. Lots of people have tried it, without success. The only safe course is to give up the married man. This suspicious world is bound to think the worst of a girl who accepts the attention of a married man — and your fiancé and the wife in the case will eventually come to share public opinion.

High Winds in Hawaiian Islands

HONOLULU (AP) — Gale winds on the fringe of Hurricane Nina lashed Kaula, westernmost major island of the Hawaiian group — today as the storm's center continued on a northward march that was expected to pass west of that island.

The Weather Bureau said the storm was expected to come no closer than to the islands 30 miles west of Kaula.

Fringe winds ranging from 50 to 80 miles an hour flew across the rain-soaked island and wind-whipped waves caused tides to rise a better several installations and beaches.

College Cage Teams Open Up Season

By ARNOLD ZEITLIN
The Associated Press

The collegians start big time basketball today. Six of last season's top 10 teams open their schedules.

Will Chamberlain, the seven-footer who was a sophomore All America for Kansas, will lead last season's No. 2 team against newly independent Oklahoma State. Other games involving last season's ranked:

Kentucky (No. 3) meets Duke; Southern Methodist (No. 4) plays Minnesota; Louisville (No. 6) opens at Evansville; Vanderbilt (No. 8) is at Sewanee; and Oklahoma City (No. 9) opposes Houston.

Also testing their strength will be several schools very anxious to move into the top 10. They include Rice (against New Mexico A&M); Michigan State (against Butler); Indiana (against Ohio U.); Tennessee (against Delaware); and LaSalle (against Millersville).

Coach Dick Harp's Kansas Jayhawks (24-3 last season) will be minus four 1956-57 starters. Chamberlain, who averaged 28.6 points per game, will be called on to handle a greater portion of the burden.

Will won't be the biggest man on a court tonight. Gonzaga University is debuting its French phenom, freshman Jean Claude (Feets) Lefebvre, a 7-3 1/4 example of reverse lend-lease from a farm near Paris. Lefebvre and colleagues will oppose College of Idaho.

Adolph Rupp, Kentucky coach, says he is down on this year's team. But the Southeastern Conference powerhouse (23-5 last season) lost one starting senior. Back are Vern Hallon, Ed Beck and Johnny Cox.

Canadians Take Couple of Wins

By UNITED PRESS

The Montreal Canadiens opened a three-point lead in the National Hockey League during the weekend.

Although still minus Maurice (Rocket) Richard, who is nursing an ankle injury, the Flying Frenchmen whipped the Boston Bruins, 4-1, Sunday night after rolling to a 6-1 victory over the Chicago Black Hawks Saturday night.

The skidding New York Rangers broke a four-game losing streak by downing the Detroit Red Wings, 5-1, and the Toronto Maple Leafs sunk the Black Hawks, 7-2, in their Sunday night contests.

Browns, Colts Move Closer to Loop Titles

By BEN OLAN
The Associated Press

The Cleveland Browns, winners of three of the last seven National Football League championships, had Baltimore, which has not even won a conference crown, are moving toward a Dec. 29 title encounter.

With only two weeks of the regular season remaining, Cleveland can win the Eastern Conference title with a tie or victory in either of its games with Detroit or New York. The Browns meet the Lions next Sunday and the Giants a week later.

The Colts, with a one-game lead in the Western Conference, will be on the road for their remaining two—against San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Both leaders had little trouble moving ahead yesterday. Cleveland crushed the Chicago Cardinals 31-0 and Baltimore defeated Los Angeles 31-14. San Francisco tied idle Detroit for second place in the Western Conference by surprising the Giants 27-17.

In games of lesser importance, the Washington Redskins beat the Chicago Bears 14-3 and the Philadelphia Eagles downed the Pittsburgh Steelers 7-6.

The Browns got another stand-out performance from Tommy O'Connell, the circuit's leading passer. He threw 65 and 23-yard scoring passes to Ray Renfro and set up Lou Groza's 13th field goal of the season with a 40-yarder to Davey Brewster.

O'Connell was carried from the field with a twisted ankle midway through the third period.

Long-legged Lenzy Moore got away for three touchdowns for Baltimore. The Colts snapped a 14-1 tie in the third quarter on Steve Myhra's 36-yard field goal.

Rampaging San Francisco was helped by five Giant fumbles in the first half. Gene Babb, Joe Perry and Billy Wilson scored the 48er touchdowns and Gordy Soltau kicked field goals of 13 and 37 yards.

Saturday Gets All Bowls Settled

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Conference titles are settled. The bowls are filled and all that remains in college football for 1957 is the selection of the national champion and the All America team.

The national champ will be named tomorrow in the final Associated Press poll. The AP All America will be announced Thursday.

Unbeaten, untied Auburn, considered a good field, no-hit outfit until last weekend, beat the drum loud and loud in a final bid for the national championship with a 40-0 rumble against Alabama Saturday. The Tigers (10-0) took over the No. 1 spot in last week's ranking with Ohio State second and Michigan State third.

Auburn took its first Southeastern Conference title, but the Tigers are on NCAA probation and ineligible for bowl play. That left the SEC's spot in the Sugar Bowl for runner-up Mississippi, which tied Mississippi State 7-7 Saturday.

The bowl search was finished Saturday after three other season-closing games — Navy's 15-0 victory over Army, Rice's 20-0 breeze over Baylor for the Southwest Conference crown, and Tennessee's 20-7 victory over Vanderbilt — which set up this year-end schedule.

Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Calif. — Ohio State (8-1) vs Oregon (7-3). Cotton Bowl at Dallas — Rice (7-3) vs Navy (8-1).

Sugar Bowl at New Orleans — Mississippi (8-1) vs Texas (6-3).

Arizona State (10-0), the only other major unbeaten, untied team, finished its season with a 47-7 victory over Arizona, but is barred from bowl play by a school rule.

Four Members of Original Bobcats Still Living Here

By MARY ANITA LASETER

Ends — Willie Warren, Harvey Betts, and Barton Dean.

Guards — Hamilton Hanegan, Harry Shiver and Kenneth Greening.

Center — Charles Bridewell.

Quarterback — Earl Spencer.

Halfbacks — Comer Boyett and Goodlett Dildy.

Fullback — Earl O'Neal.

Willie Warren was only 13 years of age when he started playing and in three seasons he developed into one of the greatest high school players Hope ever had. He now lives in Little Rock where he works for the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.

Harvey Betts (deceased) always played a good game, even though it was his first year to play football.

Barton Dean (present whereabouts unknown) was a powerful end. He was injured toward the end of the season and was unable to finish the football year.

Clyde Hart was a hard driving linesman who was always where he was needed most. He is employed by the Texas Oil Co. and makes his home in Alexandria, La.

Clyde Fuller (present whereabouts unknown) was described by Coach Clark in these words: "My, when you got Clyde Fuller riled up, he could play a lot of tackle."

Gus Bowden developed into one of the fastest men on the team. He served at the quarterback position in 1920. The year of 1927 finds him associated with an insurance firm in Amarillo, Texas.

Hamilton Hanegan was unable to participate the first of the season due to illness, but he played a "bang-up" game in two games at the close of the season. He is one of four original Bobcats still living in Hope and is employed at Ritchie Grocery Co.

Harry Shiver was always in the game hitting the line with good results. A plumber and plumbing contractor today, he also lives in Hope.

Kenneth Greening, another hard-

3 Southwest Teams Going to Big Bowls

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Except for Southern Methodist's clash with Notre Dame at Dallas Saturday, all business has been transacted in the Southwest Conference football campaign.

The conference race is over with Rice holding the championship through an assist from Texas A & M 9-7 to finish second, a very high estate for a team picked by everybody to wind up near the cellar.

Texas A & M was third.

All three of the teams will be in bowl games Jan. 1. Jess Neely, one of the few coaches with a perfect bowl record—he has won four out of four—will send his Rice team into the Cotton Bowl against Navy, which also has a coach with a perfect record, Eddie Ederlatz, the Navy coach, was successful in his only bowl venture—beating Mississippi 12-0 three years ago in the Sugar Bowl.

Texas will roll against Mississippi in the Sugar Bowl accorded an excellent chance of winning it. Texas beat Arkansas 17-0 and Arkansas was the only team to hang a defeat on Mississippi.

Texas A&M gets into the Gator Bowl against Tennessee.

Southern Methodist might have been in a bowl game had it not played Texas Christian Saturday. The Methodists took a 21-0 hammering, with their great passer, Don Meredith, made to look bad. SMU hopes to close out in a blaze of glory, however, by trimming the powerful Notre Dame.

"We're going out there to win," said Coach Bill Meek, speaking of his Saturday test with the Irish in the Cotton Bowl.

"There's one thing," he grinned, "Notre Dame scouts didn't find out much about us in the TCU game. We never had a chance to try anything."

It's not only the last game of the season but the last intersectional competition in a year that has seen the conference do exceedingly well against outside teams.

Team back for another shot. It lost to Baylor in this year's Sugar Bowl 13-7. It will be making its 11th appearance in a major bowl.

Navy has appeared in only two other bowl games, defeating Mississippi 21-0 in the 1925 Sugar Bowl and tying Washington 14-14 in the 1924 Rose Bowl.

Oklahoma, completing its regular season with a 53-6 job on Oklahoma State, will be making a fourth trip to the Orange Bowl in the finale to the Big Eight-Atlantic Coast agreement.

Mississippi, 2-3 in bowl competition, is making its third trip to the New Orleans classic.

Only two major games remain in the regular season bowl set for Saturday when Notre Dame plays Southern Methodist and Pitt plays Miami (Fla). The Irish crushed Southern Cal 40-12. SMU lost to TCU 21-0 and Miami lost to Florida 14-0 last weekend. Pitt was idle.

Crow Named College Back of the Year

By RANK LITSKY
UP Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UP) — John David Crow of Texas A&M, who would rather smash into the middle of the line than run around it, was voted college football's back of the year today in a nationwide United Press poll.

Balloting by 256 sports writers and sportscasters gave Crow 101 votes, or 40 per cent. Far behind in the next three positions were Walt Kowalczyk of Michigan State, with 33 votes, Bob Anderson of Army with 16 and Clendon Thomas of Oklahoma with 13.

Those three and Crow made up the backfield of the United Press All-America announced last week.

Although Texas A&M drew the T formation, Crow drew the line-smashing assignment from his halfback post, single wing style. That suited him just fine.

"I think the way the Aggies play football—grinding out three or four yards at a time—is real football," he said.

On some plays, Crow swept the ends with exceptional speed and was a constant danger in the open. He has run the 100 yard dash in 10.5 seconds; He is built like a bruiser—six-foot and 210 pounds—and his crew-cut blond hair gives him the authentic look of a football hero.

Crow, who comes from Springfield, La., also excels on defense. Paul (Bear) Bryant, the head coach of the Aggies, said he's never seen anyone back a defensive line as well as Crow.

While majoring in business, Crow hopes to play professional football for the next few years after his graduation in June. He said he never had an interest in coaching.

Other vote-getters in the poll: 12—Don Clark of Ohio State, 10—Lee Grossnickl of Wash., 7—Bob Neyman of Washington State and Bob Stransky of Colorado.

5—Jim Shanley of Oregon.

3—Jimmy Jones of Washington, Wray Carlton of Duke and Ray Brown of Mississippi.

1—Billy Atkins and Lloyd Nix of Auburn, Jimmy Taylor of Louisiana State, Bobby Cox of Minnesota, Joe Fanning of Oregon State, Bobby Gordon of Tennessee, Dean Philpott of Fresno State, Walt Frazier of Texas, Dan Nolan of Leigh, Billy Staley of Mississippi State, John Sanchez of Princeton, Jim Ninowski of Michigan State, Bob White of Ohio State and Len Lyles of Louisville.

Joe's The record is 15 victories, 8 losses and 2 ties.

Porkers Open Cage Season With Sooners

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — University of Arkansas Coach Glen Rose, with eight lettermen among his squad, takes the Razorbacks to Norman, Okla., tonight to meet Oklahoma in the curtain raiser of the 1957-58 basketball season.

The Porkers opened with a 59-55 victory over the Sooners last year but faltered in mid-season and finished with a 12-12 overall record and a 5-7 Southwest Conference mark.

Only Terry Dny and Joe Dickson were lost from last year's team and four men who either started or were alternate starters are back.

Two of them Larry Grisham (13) and Fred Gryn (40) are listed on Rose's probable starting lineup for tonight's game. Jay Carpenter (6-0), Harry Thompson (6-5) and sophomore Tommy Rankin (10-2) are the other probable starters.

Wayne Dunn (6-5) and Dick Rittman (6-3) probably will see reserve action.

Others on the squad include Lawrence Stotzer, Jim Windle and sophomore Ora Lee Rose.

Rose will have to find a score to replace Day, last year's captain and the team's top point-marker with 301.

The Razorbacks will be busy in their first week of play. They return home Wednesday night to face New Mexico A&M and then take on Tulsa Saturday night in Tulsa.

UA Coaching Job Narrows to Three

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — University of Arkansas President John T. Caldwell says at least three candidates will be nominated for head coaching job vacated last week by Jack Mitchell.

Caldwell said Saturday that he and the university board's athletic committee could make the final decision.

YOUNGEST J. P.—Pat Dwyer, 21, of Carbondale, who is the youngest justice of the peace in Illinois, ponders a legal point as she looks through a volume of state statutes. Pat is a junior pre-law student at Southern Illinois University and was elected in April 1957.

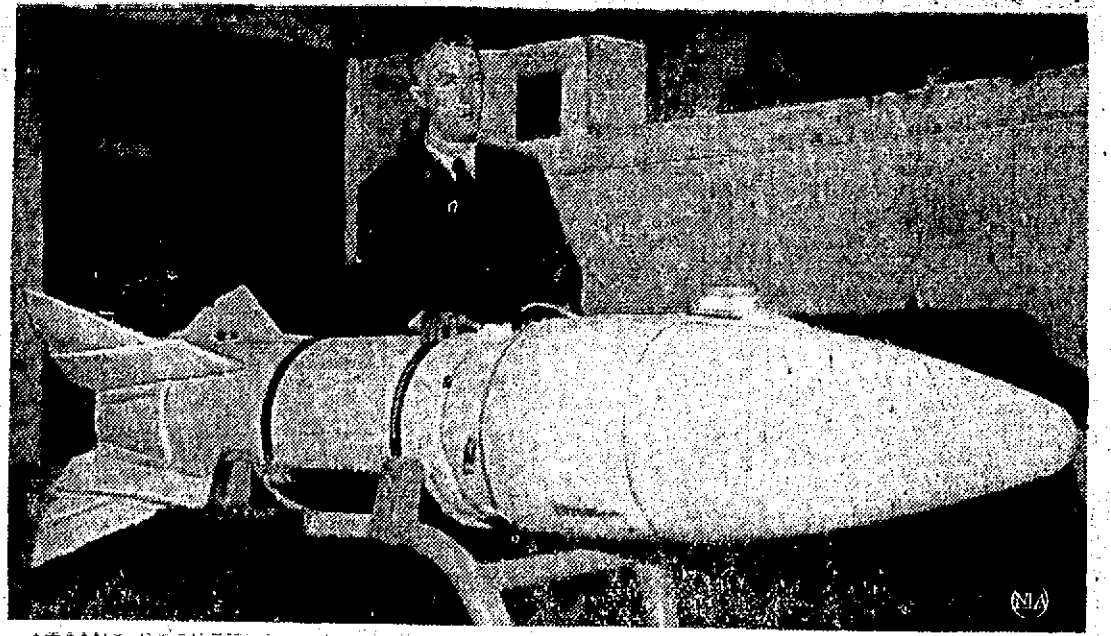

MUST BE A RECORD—These six children of Mrs. Byron Levlon, center, must hold some kind of a record. They were all born in the same Houston, Tex., hospital, in the same room, with the same doctor and nurse in attendance, Melanie, on Mrs. Levlon's lap, is one week old. The oldest is Teena, 10, at right.

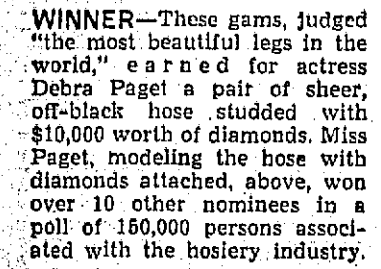

EYE SEE YOU—Modern art is probably the best way to describe this eye-catching top. It is being modeled by Mrs. J. Harris Ward during an exhibition of the works of Pablo Picasso in Chicago.

REMEMBER PATTON—The late U.S. Gen. George S. Patton Jr., a hero in the eyes of the Belgians for his leadership during World War II, is honored on this new stamp issued by the Belgian Post Office. The stamp is one of several issued by Belgium in honor of Patton.

ATOMIC ROCKET—This is the first picture of the MB-1, an air-to-air atomic rocket. Pictured with the rocket, which weighs about 800 pounds when equipped with an atomic war head, is T/Sgt. Lee A. Beckner. He is attached to the Office of Atomic Energy with the North American Defense Command, Colorado Springs, Colo. The U.S. Air Force F-89 Scorpion can carry two of the atomic rockets, one on each wing.

WINNER—These gams, judged "the most beautiful legs in the world," earned for actress Debra Paget a pair of sheer, off-black hose studded with $10,000 worth of diamonds. Miss Paget, modeling the hose with diamonds attached, above, won over 10 other nominees in a poll of 150,000 persons associated with the hosiery industry.

HERALD—Marvin Fields Jr., of Miami, Fla., a victim of cerebral palsy since birth, is the 1958 Herald of the United Cerebral Palsy Association's Golden Deed Crusade. Five-year-old Marvin is pictured as he was introduced to delegates at the organization's eighth annual convention in St. Louis.

TIMELY WARNING—Greeting with a meaning is this poster, featuring the National Fire Protection Association's fire dog, "Sparky." Santa joins the pup in reminding you to observe all safety precautions when installing Christmas decorations, that your holiday may not be turned into a flame-filled horror.

LAST OF DIOR—Actress Ingrid Bergman, whose marital life with Roberto Rossellini has ended in a legal separation, wears the final creation styled by Christian Dior before his death. Miss Bergman models the elegant, floral-patterned dress and matching mink-trimmed coat in London, where she is beginning a new movie.

SPACE MONKEY—Outfitted in a pressurized helmet and windblast suit, a "space monkey" is shown above after being placed in a high-altitude chamber during tests at an Air Force research center. The monkey, anesthetized to avoid pain and possible meddling with instruments, was one of many animals sent into the atmosphere by the Air Force in rockets and balloons during the past 10 years. This picture was previously released by Washington in January, 1956.

WILDLIFE SERIES—The nearly extinct whooping crane forms the central design of this three-cent stamp, fourth in the Wildlife Conservation series to be issued by the Post Office Department. The stamp, in blue, green and yellow, shows a female whooping crane bending over her two young, with the male bird standing guard in the background.

KISSIN' KIN—Lotus, a two-ton hippopotamus at the San Diego Zoo, affectionately muzzles her two-month-old offspring in the classic manner employed by movie queens posing for a publicity picture with their newest child. Also in the tradition of Hollywood, Lotus refused to allow the youngster to be photographed for several weeks after its birth.

ON ITS OWN—The North American X-10 unmanned supersonic test missile comes in for a landing at Downey, Calif., using a self-contained automatic landing system. The system, designed by Autonetics, a division of North American, will also work in subsonic craft. The jet trainer flying over the X-10 is being used for observation.

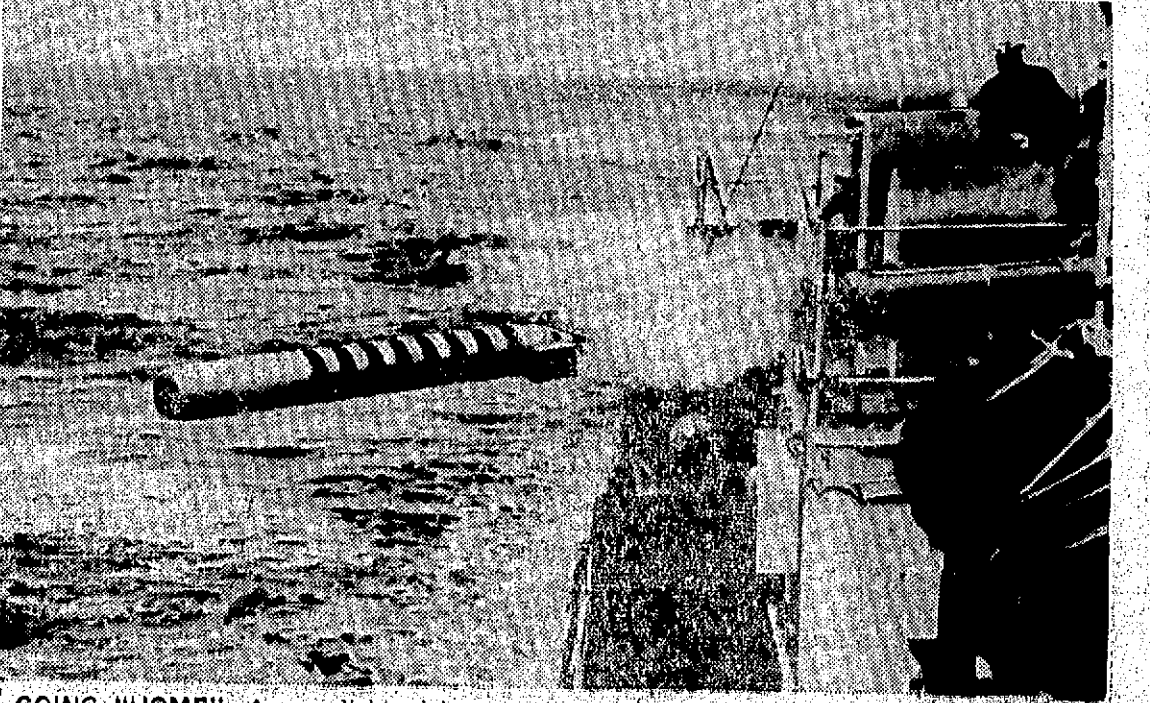

SPACE BOUND—The Army's three-stage test missile, Jupiter-C, blasts off during a test firing at Cape Canaveral, Fla. Defense Secretary McElroy has ordered the Army to prepare to launch an earth satellite using a modified Jupiter-C.

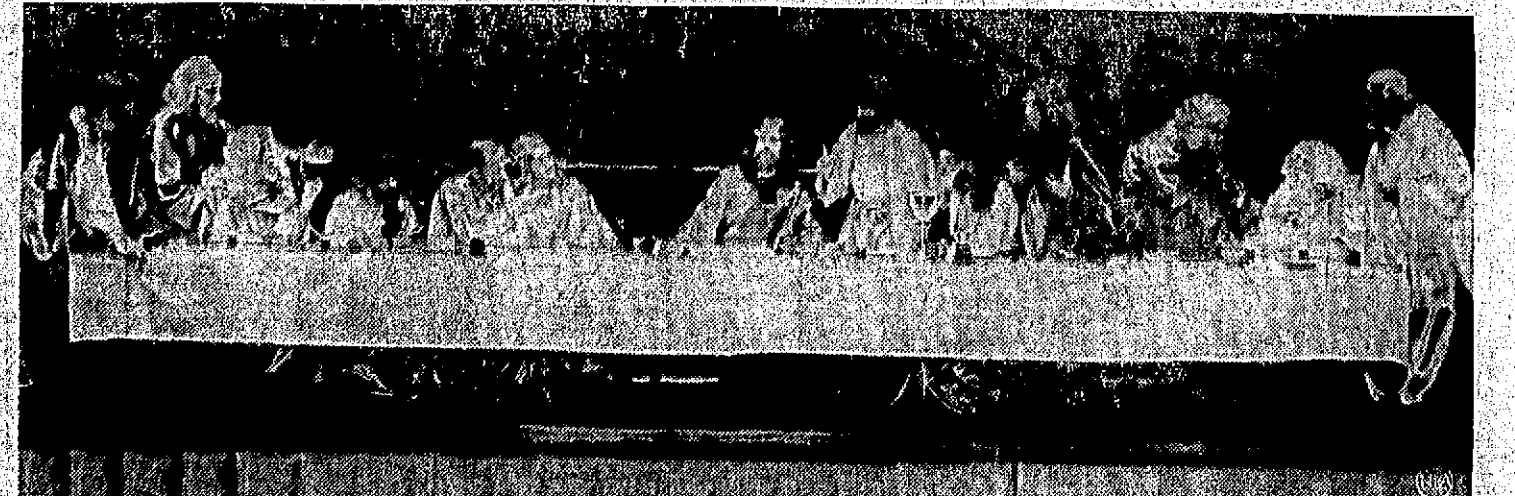

WHAT NO SCOOTER?—It seems that everyone wanted to get into the act—transportation wise that is—in this complicated crash in Amsterdam, Holland. In sequence, the streetcar was derailed, it toppled on the auto and the auto smashed into a bicycle. Luckily no one was hurt.

SINGING NELSON—Ricky Nelson, 21-year-old son of radio and TV's "Ozzie and Harriet," continues his recently started singing career at the Ohio State Fair in Columbus. Nelson, whose "I'm Walkin'" record sold a million copies, is a new teenage fad. He's slated for an appearance on the Perry Como television show.

GOING 'HOME'—A new lightweight acoustic-homing torpedo, developed by the U.S. Navy, leaves the firing tube aboard the USS Tweedy and begins its unerring journey to its target. The development of the new surface-launched torpedo is part of Navy's program of continually improving its anti-submarine weapons. The new weapon is already in use by the fleet. In releasing this photo, the Navy did not locate the scene of the action.

LIVING MASTERPIECE—A living reproduction of Leonardo da Vinci's "The Last Supper" is formed by men of the Collingwood Christian Church, Cleveland, Ohio. The tableau served as the worship center for an ecumenical communion service at the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ), in Cleveland, Ohio.
